JUAN PAULO GALINATO

GLOBAL MARKETING DIRECTOR | B2B GROWTH, MARTECH & AGENTIC AI

Quezon City, Philippines | linkedin.com/in/galinatojp | galinato.jp@gmail.com

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Global B2B marketing leader with 14+ years of experience building marketing functions, teams, and revenue-connected operating systems for technology, outsourcing, recruitment, and professional services businesses. Leads integrated marketing across APAC, Europe, and North America, combining brand strategy, go-to-market execution, demand generation, content, marketing operations, and sales enablement. Known for designing AI-inclusive marketing technology stacks and human-in-the-loop agentic workflows that improve how teams research, plan, create, activate, measure, and optimise marketing programs.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Global marketing leadership: Function building, team design, regional GTM, brand positioning, integrated campaigns, budget ownership, and executive stakeholder management.
- AI-enabled MarTech architecture: CRM, marketing automation, email, CMS and landing pages, analytics, paid media, SEO, social, project management, sales enablement, and LLM-based AI tools.
- Agentic marketing workflows: Human-in-the-loop systems for market research, campaign planning, content production and repurposing, localisation, asset QA, lead management, sales enablement, and reporting.
- Revenue and marketing operations: Funnel and pipeline design, lead capture, scoring and routing, lifecycle automation, segmentation, ABM, attribution, dashboards, and conversion optimisation.
- Digital growth and content: SEO, SEM, paid social, remarketing, email nurture, media buying, thought leadership, employer branding, and sales collateral.

SELECTED CAREER IMPACT

- Built and led distributed marketing teams across APAC, Europe, and North America, including establishing a global team across the Philippines and South Africa for APAC and European markets.
- Scaled Hammerjack's marketing function across inbound and lead generation, creative, and marketing shared services; the broader program contributed to AUD 1M in monthly recurring revenue and a 24% improvement in closing rates.

- Supported Mindgenix's Vietnam sales team in closing more than USD 20M in blockchain services and investments in 2019; the company was recognised as Southeast Asia's Most Outstanding Blockchain Services Provider.
